An interesting legal document was filed yesterday by William A. Henshall, attorney for Harry W. Flint, the water front policeman. It is an answer to Nina J. Flint's suit for divorce. Each and all of Nina's allegations are denied. But the libellee doesn't rest in his denials. He sets up a cross libel and alleges as follows:

"That libellant and libellee intermarried in Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, on the 4th day of January, 1899, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife; that libellant and libellee last lived together as husband and wife in said Honolulu; that libellee has resided in the Hawaiian Islands for more than two years last past; that ever since the said marriage of libellant and libellee, libellant has treated the libellee with extreme cruelty.

"That three days after the said marriage of libellant and libellee, to-wit, on or about January 7th, 1899, the libellee being employed in the United States Navy, was compelled to and did go to Manila, Philippine Islands, and remained away from the Hawaiian Islands for a space of about fourteen and a half months.

"That during thirteen months of said time libellee was away libellee sent to libellant the sum of thirty dollars ($30) a month for her support and maintenance, which said monthly payments were duly paid to libellant.

"That upon the return of said libellee to Honolulu, to-wit, on the 2d day of March, 1900, libellee gave to libellant the further sum of two hundred and eight dollars ($208); that shortly after libellee's said return to Honolulu libellee learned that libellant had incurred a large number of debts during the absence of libellee as aforesaid, among which said debts was included a claim for libellant's lodging; that libellant is informed and believes and upon such information and belief challenges the fact to be that libellant squandered and misapplied thirty dollars ($30) a month, and also said two hundred and eight dollars ($208) in riotous living, and did not attempt to and has not used said money to pay said indebtedness; that libellee is informed and believes, and upon such information and belief alleges the fact to be that during the absence of libellee from said Honolulu as aforesaid and since his said return to Honolulu, libellant has associated with persons of unsavoury reputation and has not conducted herself in such a manner as a good and dutiful wife should do.

"That libellant stays out every night until very late, and drinks to excess, and entirely neglects the duties of a true and dutiful wife.

"That libellant on many, various and divers occasions, too numerous to mention, has been in the habit of using and has used toward this libellee the most foul, vile and abusive language, cursing and swearing at him and calling him names unfit for publication; that libellant has falsely and maliciously accused libellee of being seen in company with different women of questionable character, late at night, in said Honolulu; that on or about the — day of June, 1900, libellant in writing stated to libellee, 'You go your way and I'll go mine. You will be better off without my company.'

"That each and all of said charges and accusations and acts of extreme cruelty of libellant toward libellee are and were utterly unfounded for and unwarranted and false, and have caused this libellee to suffer extreme mental anguish and grievous mental suffering; that there is no issue of said marriage; that libellee has at all times since their said marriage behaved and conducted himself toward libellant as a good, true and faithful husband.

"Wherefore, libellee prays that the prayer of libellant herein be denied and that said libellant's bill for divorce be dismissed; that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the libellant and libellee may be dissolved according to the prayer of libellee herein. And for such other and further order as may be just and proper in the premises.

(Signed) HARRY W. FLINT.
(Signed) WM. A. HENSHELL, Attorney for Libellee."

"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan.

"My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor.
He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured.
I think it the best medicine I have ever tried." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general

LET HIM OFF EASY.

Lawless Had Three Drunks Rollovered into One.

Frank Lawless was up before Judge Wilcox yesterday with three charges of "drunk" to answer for. He started in on Monday to get drunk and succeeded so well that he was arrested. He was released soon after his arrest, and on appearing in the police court for trial Tuesday morning was so drunk that he was ordered into custody again.

He was released later in the day after he had sobered up, and in the evening was arrested again for being drunk.

The judge fined him the usual amount on the first charge, but as he had no evidence that clearly demarked the end of the first drunk from the beginning of the second one he rolled the two into one, as he said the defendant had in all probability done. On the third charge the same fine as on the first charge was imposed, so that Lawless got rid of $6 worth of drunk charges for $4.

Boers and Colorado.

Colorado wants the Boers as settlers and offers to give them 1,000,000 acres in the valley of the river Platte. The broad, level plains along the Platte, the general character of the country, and the comparative thinness of population in that part of Colorado would make the proffered territory almost a reproduction of the Transvaal veldt, and the Platte district, perhaps, would be the most suitable home which the Boers could find in any portion of this country. Colorado and Krueger's people would alike be gainers could the plan be carried out, while the British conquerors would be relieved of a multitude of pugnacious and unwilling subjects.—Chicago News.
